Let us offer our congratulations on your engagement and forthcoming marriage and thank you for considering The Cross Keys Hotel for your wedding and celebrations.

Trust us to look after you and your guests on your very special day

The whole world knows how important your wedding day is to you. But did you know that each one is also individual and special to us too?

Whether you are organising an event for 20 or 200 guests, the venue, food and service are an integral part of the arrangements and play a huge part in the special memories which are remembered long after the day.

A timeless wedding venue full of history and character

The Cross Keys is situated in the heart of Kelso's picturesque French-style cobbled square and like our beautiful Borders town is also steeped in history and romance.

In actual fact Sir Walter Scott referred to Kelso as 'The most beautiful if not the most romantic town in Scotland'. What better place to celebrate with family and friends and enjoy your special day.

The present hotel was built in 1769, but in other forms a Cross Keys hotel has occupied this site since the earliest days of Scottish coaching inns.

The historic cobbled square, magnificent Town Hall and nearby Kelso Abbey provide a perfect backdrop for photographs that you will share and cherish forever.

The Cross Keys Hotel today is known for providing a warm and friendly welcome to its guests, excellent service from attentive staff and outstanding cuisine.

"I married my soul mate at the Cross Keys Hotel . . . what an amazing day. The staff went the extra mile for us and our guests. Highly recommended"
